Association for Adult Development and Aging

What is AADA?

The Association for Adult Development and Aging (AADA) was founded in 1986 to serve as a focal point within the American Counseling Association (ACA) for information sharing, distribution, service, professional development, and advocacy issues related to counseling adults across the lifespan in a multicultural society.

AADA seeks to improve the standards of professional service to adults of all ages by:

- Improving the competence and skills of ACA members.
- Expanding professional work opportunities in adult development and aging.
- Promoting the lifelong development and wellness of all adults.
- Addressing issues related to aging, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and disability.
- Advocating for social justice so that all adults may achieve their highest potential.
- Highlighting special issues and needs associated with aging in a multicultural society.
- Promoting standards for professional preparation for counselors of adults across the lifespan.

Who Joins AADA?

Counselors, service providers in the helping professions, family members, legislators, and other community service agencies and persons interested in matters related to the development and needs of adults across the life span are all encouraged to join AADA.

Benefits of Joining AADA

- Subscriptions to AADA's bi-annual Adultspan professional journal, and periodic division newsletters.
- Access to current information on the website (www.aadaweb.org) and the AADA email communications
- Opportunities for skill development and professional growth through participation in AADA and ACA sponsored activities.
- Public policy and legislation representation as it relates to advocating for professional issues facing counselors.

- Support through interactions with professionals who share similar activities and interests.
- Leadership opportunities through committee activities or elected positions on the AADA Executive Board.

Types of Membership - ACA membership required

Professional: Individuals who hold a master's degree or higher in counseling or a closely related field from a college or university accredited by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

Regular: Individuals whose interests and activities are consistent with those of ACA, but who are not qualified for professional membership.

New Professional: A New Professional is someone who has graduated with a masters or a doctorate within the past 12 months. Status is good for one year.

The Benefits of Joining the ACA

ACA is the leading advocate for you and your career.

When you become a member of ACA, you become part of the largest network of counseling professionals in the world. That means direct access to the resources and education you need to stay at the top of your game, unlimited ways to connect with other counseling professionals for guidance and support, and powerful representation on the topics and issues that affect your career.

Professional Tools

Professional Liability Insurance

ACA members are offered a full line of professional liability insurance products through the Healthcare Providers Service Organization (HPSO). From complimentary membership for Master's students, a 50% discount for new professionals and a 10% discount for all other members, you can rest assured that HPSO offers the most competitive insurance programs possible.

Health Insurance Programs

ACA provides assistance with medical, dental, life, disability, and long-term care insurance through special plans.

Ethics Consultations

Get the support you need when you need it. Consultations are available five days a week with a 72-hour inquiry response time. Free to members.

Career Resources

Take advantage of free resume critiques, mock interviews, job listings, search strategies and much more.

Education

Savings on CEs

ACA membership quickly pays for itself, as you earn one FREE CE credit each month (members are notified of opportunities via email). That's a $240 value.

News, Information, & Inspiration

Whether it's the Counseling Today magazine, a quarterly electronic counseling research journal, Journal of Counseling & Development (print copies available for a fee), or bimonthly editions of ACA eNews (special focus editions also available), you will have everything you need at your fingertips.

Counseling.org

The ACA website offers unlimited education opportunities, including webinars, podcasts, Practice Briefs (research-based approaches submitted by other counselors); full access to Journal of Counseling & Development and Counseling Today articles and much more.

Advocacy

From fighting for critical legislation on Capitol Hill to promoting the value of professional counselors and counseling to the public, ACA is leading the charge to ensure that you receive the respect and support you deserve.

Professional Credibility

The ACA member logo, on your website and business cards, assures those you serve that you are a leader in the counseling profession, adhering firmly to the ACA Code of Ethics.

A Community of Your Own

ACA Conference & Expo

No other meeting brings together a more diverse cross section of the counseling profession, representing every counseling specialty from every corner of the globe.

ACA Divisions & Branches

Take your membership to the next level. Divisions and Branches represent the best opportunity to stay connected with colleagues working in your specific interest and practice areas, or gain access to other counselors in your own neighborhood.

ACA Connect

This online networking tool for members only allows you the opportunity to find friends and colleagues with similar interests, contribute practical tips and ideas, ask questions and get answers in real time, share powerful education resources, see who is attending events, watch brief instructional videos, and so much more.

Social Media

ACA is very active on Facebook (American Counseling Association), Twitter (@CounselingViews) and LinkedIn (American Counseling Association). Like and follow us to get news, deadline reminders, information about special promotions, contests, and deals, and more.

ACA Discounts

Members receive exclusive discounts on auto, home, and personal insurance products as well as discounts from industry leaders in travel, hotel, cell phones, credit cards, office products and much more.
