Association for Adult Development and Aging

What is AADA?

The Association for Adult Development and Aging (AADA) was founded in 1986 to serve as a focal point within the American Counseling Association (ACA) for information sharing, distribution, service, professional development, and advocacy issues related to counseling adults across the lifespan in a multicultural society.

AADA seeks to improve the standards of professional service to adults of all ages by:

- Improving the competence and skills of ACA members.
- Expanding professional work opportunities in adult development and aging.
- Promoting the lifelong development and wellness of all adults.
- Addressing issues related to aging, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation and disability.
- Advocating for social justice so that all adults may achieve their highest potential.
- Highlighting special issues and needs associated with aging in a multicultural society.
- Promoting standards for professional preparation for counselors of adults across the lifespan.

Who Joins AADA?

Counselors, service providers in the helping professions, family members, legislators, and other community service agencies and persons interested in matters related to the development and needs of adults across the life span are all encouraged to join AADA.

Benefits of Joining AADA

- Subscriptions to AADA's bi-annual Adultspan professional journal, and periodic division newsletters.
- Access to current information on the website (www.aadaweb.org) and the AADA email communications
- Opportunities for skill development and professional growth through participation in AADA and ACA sponsored activities.
- Public policy and legislation representation as it relates to advocating for professional issues facing counselors.

- Support through interactions with professionals who share similar activities and interests.
- Leadership opportunities through committee activities or elected positions on the AADA Executive Board.

Types of Membership - ACA membership required

Professional: Individuals who hold a master's degree or higher in counseling or a closely related field from a college or university accredited by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation.

Regular: Individuals whose interests and activities are consistent with those of ACA, but who are not qualified for professional membership.

New Professional: A New Professional is someone who has graduated with a masters or a doctorate within the past 12 months. Status is good for one year.

Student: Individuals who are enrolled at least half-time in a college or university program.

Retired: Members who are retired from the counseling profession and have been active ACA members for the past 5 consecutive years.

AADA Membership Only

Regular (Associate): Regular (Associate) membership is not contingent upon membership in ACA. Persons whose interests and activities are consistent with those of AADA, but who are not qualified for professional membership, may be admitted as Regular (Associate) members of the association.

Division Processing Fee: To join AADA without joining ACA, a processing fee of $10 will apply.

Your Passion. Your Profession. Our Purpose.

Are You Taking Advantage of All That ACA Has to Offer?

ACA is the leading advocate for you and your career. When you become a member of ACA, you become part of the largest network of counseling professionals in the world. That means direct access to the resources and education you need to stay at the top of your game, unlimited ways to connect with other counseling professionals for guidance and support, and powerful representation on the topics and issues that affect your career.

Professional Development

Career Advancement Resources

Take advantage of ACA's Career Central, where you have access to free resume critiques, mock interviews, job listings, search strategies and much more. ACA members also have opportunities to nominate and be recognized with more than 20 members-only awards.

Continuing Education

ACA makes earning your CE credits easy in our affordable, quality online courses available for you to take at your convenience. Presented by experts in a variety of subject areas, you can learn in webinars, book chapters, journal articles, practice briefs and much more.

Members Get FREE CE! ACA membership quickly pays for itself, as you earn one FREE CE credit each month (members are notified of opportunities in our email newsletter). That's a $264 value.

ACA Conference & Expo

No other event gives you access to the education and networking you need to learn and grow in your counseling career. Each spring, you can access more than 30 hours of in-person CEs in hundreds of unique sessions created specifically for counseling professionals.

News, Information & Inspiration

Whether it's the monthly Counseling Today magazine, quarterly electronic counseling research journal, Journal of Counseling & Development (print copies available for a fee), or the weekly updates in our free Counseling Insider and Member Minute email newsletters (special focus editions also available), you have access to countless, timely resources at your fingertips.

ACA Bookstore

Keep up with your professional reading in hundreds of titles all at a special member discount. ACA members enjoy discounts of up to 30% off the list price on books written for counselors by counselors.

Practice Support

Professional Liability Insurance

ACA members are offered a full line of professional liability insurance products through the Healthcare Providers Service Organization (HPSO). Benefits include complimentary coverage for Master's students with ACA student membership, up to a 60% discount for new professionals individually insured through HPSO, a 10% discount for all other individually insured ACA members, an opportunity for an additional 10% off with completion of CEs at the ACA conference, and up to a 15% risk management orientation discount for private practices or incorporated entities.

Health Insurance Programs

ACA provides assistance with dental, life, disability and long-term care insurance through special plans.

Ethics Consultations

Get the support you need when you need it. Consultations are available at no cost exclusively to ACA members 5 days a week with a 72-hour inquiry response time.

Advocacy

From advocating for critical legislation on Capitol Hill to promoting the value of professional counselors and counseling to the public, ACA is leading the charge to ensure that you receive the respect and support you deserve.

A Community of Your Own

ACA Connect

This online members-only networking tool allows you the opportunity to find friends and colleagues with similar interests, contribute practical tips and ideas, ask questions and get answers in real time, share powerful education resources, see who is attending events, watch brief instructional videos and so much more.
